

THE GREEN ALBUM

10 ROOMS THAT MAKE US GREEN WITH ENVY!

ENTRANCE HALL
CRÈME
DE MENTHE
16-5919
PANTONE

"An entrance hall is a great place to play with color because you want that element of surprise. This green is striking, and it has enough presence to glue together all three floors of this 1800s Greenwich Village town house as it continues up the stair hall. Colors were bolder back then: they were meant to be seen by candlelight. And look at the beautiful way it reacts to black and white."

STEVEN GAMBREL